

ANNOUNCEMENT

Woodland Public Library Science and Society Discussion Series

Last Thursday of each month, 6:30 to 8:30 PM, Library Leake Room, 250 First St.

June 28

“Where did your genetic ancestors come from?” Genetic Genealogy
Dr. Graham Coop
Professor
Department of Evolution and Ecology and Center for Population Biology
University of California, Davis

July 26

“Bias in Communication”
Christopher Maben
Lecturer
Communication Department, California State University, Sacramento

August 30

“Corn: Diversity and Origins”
Dr. Jeffrey Ross-Ibarra
Professor
Department of Plant Sciences
University of California, Davis

September 27

“Lake Davis, Northern Pike and Rotenone: Trying to get it right!”
Dr. Ron Tjeerdema, Ph.D.
Distinguished Professor of Environmental Toxicology
Associate Dean for Environmental Sciences
University of California, Davis

October 25

Dr. Roberta L. Millstein
Professor
Department of Philosophy
Science and Technology Studies
University of California, Davis

November 29

“Humans as the Earth’s Greatest Evolutionary Force”
Dr. Andrew Whitehead, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Department of Environmental Toxicology
University of California, Davis